Sarjeant meets Hickey in one semifinal, with McLinden playing French in the other this morning at West End.

McLinden, playing with Sandra Taylor, Gail Clarke and Robyn Fisher, defeated Napier's 3 lead after 10 ends against Moka.

Chris Telford 25-15 in 22 completed ends in their morning quarterfinal clash.

Telford opened with a two and single, before McLinden got out to an 11-5 lead after eight ends. Telford, with Raelene Cronin, Kay Goldsworthy and Michelle Robinson, pulled that back to 12-10 after 12 ends. But the Auck-

Sarjaeant's side of Christine Lineham, Angela

Moon and Diane Klomp were 24-12 victors over Lyn Rae (Kia Toa), who was skipping Jackie Morgan, Angela Rooker and Coral Luk-ies.

Opening exchanges were even, with the sides locked at 5-all after eight ends. Sarjeant won the next five ends, including a six on the 12th, to surge to 16-5. Rae needed a late rally, trailing 18-9 after 18 ends, but instead it was Sarjeant with counts of 3-2-1 that took control.

Hickey was a 29-22 winner over Sheryl Wellington (Mairangi Bay).

Jeanie Browne, Paula Kempthorne, Helen Blick and skip Hickey raced away to a 19-3 lead after nine ends. A quick finish looked likely. But by morning tea, that had been reduced to 19-9 and soon after it was 19-13. Then things heated up. Aided by a four, Wel-

Taranaki v Whanganui pairs final

Tower's Alethea Rowlands and Irene Taunt will appear in their second final in three years in the Marbles Restaurant pairs event, supported in association with Bowls Taranaki Board member Kevin Gray.

The pair narrowly lost the 2024 final 22-18 to the Pine Rivers (Brisbane) team of Terry McAlary and Sue Brady. But they earned a second bite when they quickly won their two post section games at West End yesterday.

They have a tough assignment in the final, a Whanganui pair of Deb Garside and Dianne Patterson. Garside is a member of the Aramoho club and has three centre titles, while Patterson, of Gonville-Castlecliff, holds 45. In the semifinals, Rowlands and Taunt, who have both just been named in the Taranaki senior representative side for the Octagonal fixture in two weekend's time, thrashed Fitzroy's Lesley Te Awa and Maree Gadsby 28-3, having earlier led 16-0.

The semifinal between Garside and Patterson and Australian Caite Roxburgh and Kristin Stamp (Stratford-Avon) was a close encounter. Generally, Garside and Patterson held the edge, but Stamp converted a number of heads, including on the drive. Roxburgh and Stampa levelled at 8-all, and after 18 of the 21 ends, at 13-all. Garside and Patterson finished the better, taking a single and two twos.

An unusual occurrence in the quarterfinals was Roxburgh and Stampa picking up maximums of six shots on both the second and fourth ends on their way to a 26-18 win over Opunake's mother-and-daughter duo of Lois and Angela Debique.

Three teams share best Taranaki prize

In the final analysis, three Taranaki teams have shared the prize for the best-performed local team in the fours event.

The three sides all exited at the last 16 stage: Lois Ritson, Denise Banks, Denise Cottam and Susan Cottam (West End), Carolyn Harris, Debbie Smith, Marlene Barrowman and Heather Johns (Paritutu), and Val McEldowney, Anne Brophy, Margy Carey and Elaine Hodge (New Plymouth).

Semi and final live on YouTube

In association with Bowls New Zealand, one semifinal and the final will be broadcast live on YouTube this morning. The coverage can be found at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RZMXto9KhL8>
